2.5.4 Sanctions to prevent the use of PEDs
2.5.5 Educational strategies to prevent the use of PEDs
2.5.6 Impact of the use of PEDs on the sport

3.1 The features of a major sporting event

3.1.1 The types and scheduling of major sporting events: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>□ Regular</li><li>□ 'One-Off'</li><li>□ Regular and recurring</li></ul>	To include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The importance of the different types of event</li><li>• Applied examples of these</li><li>• Comparing and contrasting between them and the different types of sporting activities they include</li></ul> For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Regular events - the UEFA Champions' League Final, held in a different city each year but could return after a few years</li><li>• 'One-Off' events - the Olympic/Paralympic games, held in a host city once in a generation</li><li>• Regular and recurring events - such as a Formula One Event or Wimbledon are held each year at the same venue/city</li><li>• Nature of participants and spectators - the event is usually international: involving participants and spectators from two or more countries</li></ul>
3.1.2 The nature of the participants and spectators

3.2 Positive and negative pre-event aspects of hosting a major sporting event

3.2 Positive and negative pre-event aspects of hosting a major sporting event

3.2.1 Positive and negative pre-event aspects of hosting a major sporting event:

- Bidding for the event
- Infrastructure and transport systems development
- Financial/commercial investment/support
- The potential for increased employment
- Local/national objections to the bidding process

To include comparing and contrasting of positive and negative pre-event aspects of hosting a major sporting event, specific examples for:

- Bidding - should include justifications relating to both the positive and negative aspects of bidding for a major sporting event
- Financial/commercial investment - the impact of the social and economic attractiveness of a host city/country in securing investment
- Local/National Social objections - how money is used for bidding for an event, instead of being spent on perceived greater social needs and the impacts

3.3 Potential positive and negative aspects of hosting a major sporting event

3.3.1 During the event:

- Positive aspects/benefits include:
  - Improved social infrastructure
  - Improved national morale/social cohesion
  - Increase in national status
  - Greater national interest in sport
  - Increased media coverage of the sport(s)
  - A potential increase in direct and indirect tourism
  - An increase in short-term employment during the event
- Negative aspects/drawbacks include:
  - An increase in transport, litter and noise
  - The potential for an increase in terrorism and crime
  - Poor performance by home nation/team and the impact on national pride/morale
  - Perceived relegation/lack of investment in regional areas not involved in the national event
  - Negative media coverage of perceived deficiencies in the organisation or infrastructure/facilities

To include applied examples of the benefits and drawbacks relating to hosting a major sporting event, both during and longer term post- event

3.3.2 Immediate and longer term post-event:

- Positive aspects/benefits include:
  - A legacy of improved/new sporting facilities
  - An increase in the sports' participation
  - An increase in the profile of sports involved
  - A legacy of improved transport and social infrastructure
  - Raising of the city/nation's international profile/status
  - An increase in future financial investment
- Negative aspects/drawbacks include:
  - The event might have costed more to host than the revenue generated
  - Sports facilities unused after the event
  - A loss in national reputation/status if the event was badly organised, the host nation's participants performed badly, or scandals emerged

4.1 National Governing Bodies (NGBs)

4.1.1 What NGBs do for their sport:

- ☐ Promote participation
- ☐ Develop the sport's coaching and officiating infrastructure
- ☐ Organise tournaments and competitions
- ☐ Amend the existing rules and apply disciplinary procedures for rule breaking
- ☐ Ensure safety within their sport
- ☐ Provide support, insurance and technical guidance to members
- ☐ Develop policies and initiatives
- ☐ Lobby for funding

To include functions of the roles of any named NGB with sporting examples relating to:

- Participation - could be promoted through schemes, media coverage and equal opportunities. Students should be able to give named and current examples of such measures
- Coaching and officiating - Students should be able to identify and illustrate coaching and officiating qualifications that are available and the levels structure that they operate within
- Tournaments/competitions - examples of current tournaments/competitions organised by NGBs
- Rules and disciplinary procedures - an awareness of recent/current rule changes and an awareness of disciplinary measures implemented by the NGB for rule infringement
- Policies and Funding - an awareness of how an NGB develops its policies and initiatives and generates its funding

Topic Area 5: The use of technology in sport

Teaching content	Breadth and depth
5.1 The role of technology in sport
5.1.1 To enhance performance 5.1.2 To increase the safety of participants 5.1.3 To increase fair play and increase the accuracy of officiating 5.1.4 To enhance spectatorship	To include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Enhanced performance - an awareness of and be able to give examples of a range of methods, equipment and clothing to enhance performance in named sporting activities</li><li>• Increased safety - technology that enhances the safety of participants for named sporting activities</li><li>• Increased fair play/accuracy - technology such as video refereeing can support officials in making decisions and enhance fair play. Students should be able to give examples for named sporting activities</li><li>• Enhanced spectatorship - use of screens in stadia in order to allow spectators to view appeals made by players</li></ul>

5.2 Positive and negative effects of the use of technology in sport

5.2.1 Positive: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li><input type="checkbox"/> Enhanced performance</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Lower risk of injury</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Quicker recovery from injury</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> More accurate decisions</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Technical analysis</li></ul> 5.2.2 Negative: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li><input type="checkbox"/> Unequal access to the same quality of technology</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Increased cost of technological advances</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Availability and affordability of technology</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Potential reduction in the flow of the game through introduction of officiating technology</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Officials' decisions influenced by technology, which does not always apply the best interpretation of the rules</li></ul> 5.2.3 Positive and negative effects of technology on the spectator experience	To include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Suitability of technology</li><li>• Named examples linked to sporting activities, with their positive and negative effects</li></ul>
