

Define development.

Identify the three ways the World Bank classifies countries according to economic and social development.

Identify 4 social and economic measures of development.

Why is birth rate a better indicator of development than death rate?

Why is the Human Development Index one of the most commonly used measures of development?

What is the demographic transition model?

Draw a simple diagram to show the main features of the demographic transition model.

Explain why population growth is the greatest in stage 2.

Give 3 physical causes of uneven development.

Identify one economic and historical cause of uneven development.

Identify two consequences of uneven development.

Explain why relying on the export of commodities (raw materials) hinders economic development.